

SUNDAY NIGHT AT KENTON

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

June 23

Rosalind Schogger

'Ethiopia; What makes this place and its Jews so special?'

Rosalind, a former Kenton resident, is a travel writer and photographer and travels frequently to Ethiopia. By working with the Jewish community of Gondar and extensively exploring this huge land-locked country, she has developed friendships which have given her fascinating insights into how Ethiopia ticks

July 14

Kathrin Pieren

Deputy Curator at the London Jewish Museum

'Curating at a Jewish Museum: challenges and opportunities'

September 15

Adam Wagner

Human Rights barrister

'70 Years On: how the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was forged from the flames'

October 27

David Hirsh,

Senior Lecturer in Sociology at Goldsmiths, University of London - and expert on antisemitism

'Contemporary Populism and Contemporary Antisemitism'

